RE/MAX Classic Agents go to Bat for Devon Strafford Little League

Wayne, PA -- (ReleaseWire) -- 06/15/2016 -- When an invitation to enjoy a favorite pastime includes supporting America's favorite pastime, it seems like a natural. For RE/MAX Classic's Dave Rantanen and Brett Furman, nothing could be more natural than hosting a fundraising bowling party in support of Devon Strafford Little League. The event, which included free bowling, food, and raffles, took place at Devon Lanes in Devon on Friday, June 3rd, from 5:30 to 8pm.

"I played ball on the Devon Strafford Little League fields many years ago as a child," said Mr. Furman, Broker-Owner of RE/MAX Classic and co-host of the "Show Up and Bowl" event. "Offering my support to the community I grew up in is a pleasure, especially when it contributes to the development of a great group of kids."

Why bowling?

"It's fun, pure and simple," said Dave Rantanen, Mr. Furman's business partner and a Devon Strafford Little League coach who also sits on the League's Board of Directors. "A fundraising event for an organization that is about kids just has to be an all-around good time."

Mr. Rantanen, who conceived of and hosted the bowling event, is a life-long devotee to the sport of baseball. Both of his sons are active players in the League and lovers of the game.

"When you see up close what dedication to a team sport does for your own kids, it really puts a different spin on things," said Mr. Rantanen. "This game teaches perseverance, patience, and the long-term payoff of hard work. It teaches kids how to belong to a group while not being afraid to stand out, and how to really pull for another person to succeed. Lessons like that usually come along much later in life. That's just one of the reasons why being a part of the League is about so much more than baseball."

With no charge for attendance or participation in the event, guests are free make any donation of their choice in support of DSLL.
